VISION

Promotion and development of the African Woman in sport.

MISSION

To actively promote participation of women in sport in Africa at all levels (technical, administrative and decision-making structures)

PRIORITIES

- The creation of a “Women and Sport” Commission in each African NOC;
- The creation of an African “Women and Sport” network ;
- To facilitate women’s access to management and executive positions.

OBJECTIVES

- To develop more initiatives to increase the presence of African women in sport at practical and management level;
- To encourage the organisation of training programmes for women in different areas of sport (leadership, management, coaching, referring, journalism, etc.);
- To highlight women who have worked and contributed to the development of physical education and sport in Africa at all levels;
- To ensure a more equal representation of women in decision-making and administrative structures and to fix a minimum quota of 20%;
- To undertake studies and research on the subject of Women in Sport in Africa.

ACTION PLAN

- To make a study on women's participation in structures of African sport;
- To include more women in all ANOCA Commissions;
- To develop an information manual on the promotion of women in sport in Africa;
- To enable women to benefit from training in leadership, management, coaching, journalism, etc.;
- To ensure that women's candidatures be considered for the ANOCA "Olympic Initiative Prize" ;
- To ensure that women (sportswomen, leaders or coaches) can be awarded with ANOCA honorary distinctions, aiming at rewarding persons involved in sport in Africa and promote Olympic Values among young people;
- To develop communication on women and sport through a dedicated page on women's participation in sport in Africa on the ANOCA web site;
- To organise meetings and forums in the seven zones and ensure their harmonisation;
- To maximise the participation of African women in the IOC world conference on Women and Sport in 2008;
- To contribute to the creation of an African Museum of "Sport and Olympism" ;
- To take advantage of sports events in Africa in 2005-2008 to maximise opportunities of formal and informal meetings of the Commission (African Games, Zone Games, etc.);
- To evaluate the actions implemented annually ;
- To present an activity report at ANOCA General Assemblies;
- To ask ANOCA to proceed to the implementation of the amendment - proposed by the previous ANOCA "Women & Sport" commission related to Gender Representation - to the constitution to include either as a separate clause or into clause 10 the following :

"GENDER REPRESENTATION"

1. There shall not be discrimination on the basis of gender in all committees of ANOCA.
2. If gender representation is not fulfilled by election, the Executive Board shall co-opt members to represent the Gender onto the Board.

MEANS

To implement these intentions, a specific financial study must be made by the Women and Sport Commission, with support from ANOCA.
